Second-hand uniform and affordability

Advice and support for families in financial hardship can be given at the school office.

Second-hand sales are organised by the PTA.

Tips for families

Many supermarkets have special uniform deals in the summer.

Some charity shops have school uniform items, especially at the end of the school year.

A class WhatsApp group can be helpful for sharing information and passing on items.

Parents might consider sharing multi-packs of basic items, if children are likely to outgrow clothes quickly.

Trousers bought a size too large can last longer if the hem is turned up and then let down as the child grows.

Various websites have hints for keeping costs down and how to repair clothes, eg davidluke.com, Facebook Marketplace, Facebook Swap & Sell.
