

Lowther

We love learning at Lowther

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends,

Time is absolutely flying, we can't quite believe November is nearly done ... but ho, ho, ho Christmas is coming. Nativity rehearsals are now in full swing and we have been so impressed with how quickly the children are learning the songs and have enjoyed going to the hall to practise. You have received a letter with your child's part and the costume they need to bring (lots are provided by school) - any questions do not hesitate to ask.

Creating 'Shh we have a plan' story maps.

This week we have been learning...

- Phonics– Phase 3 'sh', 'th', 'ng', 'nk'. HRS word– push
- Maths– the children have heard and used positional language to describe how items are positioned in relation to items.
- We Have a Plan– We have SO enjoyed this story! The children blew us away with some of their amazing plans and story maps.
- Music—we have continued learning a Christmas songs.
- Football! We really enjoyed watching England score all those goals! What a super opportunity to do lots of counting!

Next week we will be learning...

- Phonics— Phase 3 'ai', 'ee', 'igh' and 'oa' and HRS words 'was' and 'her'.
- Maths— all things 4!
- Nativity fun!
- The Jolly Postman will be our text next week.
