

We love learning at Lowther

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends,

Welcome to edition 5 of the whole school newsletter. First of all we'd like to say a huge thank you to all of you that came along to the Welcome BBQ. It was such a lovely event! Huge thanks of course to the PTA who did a marvellous job staging such a warm and friendly occasion for our families.

We wanted to let you know about governorship in this week's newsletter. Lowther has a truly fantastic governing body who work alongside leaders at the school to support and challenge us as we develop and grow our school. We currently have up to two vacancies for a parent governor and so will be holding elections soon. Please do look out for a letter this week which explains more and come and talk to one of us if this is something you're interested in exploring further. We'd love to get some new parent governors on board.

Wishing everyone a super week ahead.

Mark and Alastair

Assembly themes this week

Kindness

Mr Ripley led the sixth Monday morning assembly of the term focusing on kindness and how important it is to be kind to others, including engaging in being respectful and considerate.

Great stories

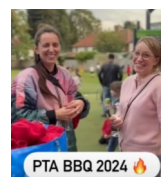

We shared some more stories last week — a classic Michael Rosen tale and then one from one of my favourite authors, Jon Klassen. We explored the similarities between two very different stories.

Photographs of the week

The photograph above highlights our excellent visit from MP for Richmond Park, Sarah Olney.

Below is a snap from the PTA's Welcome BBQ. For both check out our Instagram page for highlights videos.

Performance Poetry

Our annual performance poetry competition was another huge success. We had children from all the years from one to six perform poems for the whole school to listen to. There were individual performances, groups, raps, poems with messages, poems which made us all laugh. It was a great deal of fun and really showcased the range of talents we have in our fantastic school. Superb job children.
