

Support for children and young people with special educational needs or disabilities (SEND) achieving for children

Do you have a child with special educational needs or a disability? Did you know that there is a website that contains information about support and services in the local area? This leaflet contains links to some examples of information that you can find on the SEND Local Offer website for Kingston and Richmond.

Special Educational Needs or Disability Register

All local authorities must have a register of children with special educational needs and disabilities in their area. It helps them plan services and communicate with children, young people, parents and carers.

When you register you can also apply for a Disability Awareness Card.
